Cotton in Liverpool ... steady, with fair sales, and the official ... for Mid-Uplands is advanced to 6 9-16. ...ts of Americans and Surats, seem steady, ...e variation in price. Manchester is quiet ...dy, and the only alteration made in quo... is for 40s Mule, which is now quoted 9½d. ...publish below, as usual, the weekly returns ... Bank of Bombay, and these show as yet ...inution in the demands of the trade on ...ources of the Bank. Deposits have increased ... little over 9 lakhs, but there is an increase ... in the Bills discounted of about 7½ lakhs, and ... Loans of 14½ lakhs. So that there is a decrease ... the reserve of Cash and Notes of a little over 22 lakhs.

In our local market during the holidays a large business has been done in Cotton at hardening rates, and the demand, as before, has chiefly run upon the better grades. Oomras are quoted by European sellers Rs. 195 for Good and Rs. 185 for Fully Good Fair. The bulk of the business, however, has been in ready lots of native Cottons at a rupee or two under these limits, and the amount of business done during the past few days in such Cottons has been large. Broach has also been in fair demand, and a good many lots have changed hands at Rs. 226 and Rs. 224. There have also been some arrivals of Ra... Cotton, which have been placed at Rs. 203, for Dhollera Cotton, for Fully Good to Fine.

Exchange is firm, and we ...quote for ready business :—

A large business has been done to-day, but the bulk of it has been for April and May, 3 months' credits for these months having been placed at 1 8½d. and 1 8 15-32d.

GOVERNMENT PAPER is lower than we quoted before the holidays, and a large business has been done at 101½ for 4 per cents. for cash, and Rs. 101½ for 31st March and 7th April delivery.

Bank of Bombay shares are a little higher, and business has been done at 765.

Press shares are steady, and spinning shares are quiet.

OUR FREIGHT market is steady, and some business to be done at 32-6 for Liverpool. The steamer Gleadowe has taken one thousand tons of cargo for London at 33-9. The sailing ship Khimjee Oodowjee has further engaged 2,000 bales at 45 for Liverpool.

A. MENIST,
OCULIST OPTICIAN,

RESPECTFULLY announces that, having received numerous solicitations, he has been again induced to pay a professional visit to this great city ; but his stay will be limited, as important affairs demand his presence in Europe.

The superiority of his Spectacles, Eyeglasses, and Binoculars is so well known throughout India, that it is not necessary further to mention it. Mr. Menist has devoted a lifetime to the profession, and the success which has attended his treatment of numerous difficult and apparently hopeless cases of defective vision sufficiently guarantee his skill.

Mr. Menist may be consulted at the Establishment of his agents.

The Bombay Gazette

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 1882.

WE are less concerned at the retention of the right of the Government to appeal against acquittals than at the character of the arguments used to justify it. It seems to us that the speeches of Mr. Whitley Stokes and some of his colleagues, at the Viceregal Legislative Council last Friday, were a remarkable illustration of the folly of attempting to prove too much. In reviewing the discussion which took place on the motion of Maharajah Jotendro Mohun Tagore to expunge the provision referred to from the Indian Code, we must paraphrase the apology of Junius and avow that we are not lawyers by profession, nor do we pretend to be more deeply read than every English gentleman should be in the laws of his country ; and, consequently, if the principles we maintain are truly constitutional, we shall not think ourselves answered, though we should be convicted of a mistake in terms, or of misapplying the language of the law. The hon'ble Maharajah professed to be animated by a desire to bring the Indian Penal Code into harmony with those generally adopted by the civilised nations of the world. His object we believe to be an admirable one, and though we are far from forgetting the peculiar circumstances affecting the administration of justice in India, we should be sorry to think that he will be discouraged by the rejection of his motion last Friday. His general arguments we take to be unexceptionable, and save only for the peculiarities to which we have just adverted, there ought to be no opposition to his views. In those very exceptional circumstances, however, may be found sufficient justification for rejecting his motion at the present moment ; and that being so, we regret that Mr. Whitley Stokes, Mr. Crosthwaite, and Mr. Reynolds should, in their anxiety to justify the provision, have brought forward arguments altogether erroneous and untenable, and have cited cases which by no conceivable legal ingenuity can be made to bear the construction they sought to place upon them. The Maharajah based his objection to the obnoxious provision mainly on the fact that the power thus conferred on the Government was unknown to the Penal Codes of every civilised nation. This statement, sweeping though it may seem, we believe to be quite within the truth ; and it was with surprise, ther

OBITUARY.

LONDON, MARCH 6.

The death of Mr. Edwin James is announced.

[The brief telegraphic announcement above marks the close of a once brilliant career. Up to twenty years ago no lawyer had more splendid prospects than Mr. Edwin James. He was a leading Q. C., and a prominent member of Parliament. No man probably was ever nearer the Woolsack and missed it than he. In 1862, pecuniary transactions of a discreditable character, and grossly dishonourable professional conduct, were discovered concerning him. He resigned his seat, and the Recordership of Brighton, whereupon from Brookes's and the Reform Clubs, was removed from the office of Her Majesty's Counsel, and was disbarred by the Inner Temple. He went to America, but failing to obtain a position, he returned, and applied unsuccessfully to be re-instated at the Bar. For some years a short advertisement in the newspapers announced that he might be "consulted confidentially," and in this inglorious obscurity he has dragged out his blighted life.]

We publish a supplement this morning containing the chief items of English news received by the mail which arrived yesterday.

MAJOR COOPER, Military Pay-master in Bombay, has taken twelve months' sick leave to Europe.

SIR FREDERICK ROBERTS, Commander-in-Chief of the Madras Army, left Bombay at 2 p. m. yesterday from the Boree-bunder station of the G. I. P. Railway for Poona, on his way to Secunderabad. A salute of 15 guns was fired from the saluting battery on the occasion of His Excellency's departure.

A GREAT traffic is already being carried on over the new Godhra extension of the B. B. & C. I. Railway, about 60 wagons per day being sent from that town.

MR. M. KEMPSON, formerly Director of Public Instruction, in the N. W. Provinces, has been appointed Professor of Hindustani at the Staff College, Sandhurst.

THE Ceylon papers mention the arrival at Colombo of H. M. S. Alert, engaged on a surveying expedition round the world. She has just come from Singapore, and is bound for the Seychelles, continuing her soundings, &c., on her voyage.

SIR ALFRED LYALL'S essays are to be republished in a collected and revised form by Murray towards the end of the year. The Pioneer expresses a hope that his many contributions to lighter literature may be dealt with in the same way.

WITH reference to the recent attempt to shoot Her Majesty the Queen-Empress, the Indu Prakash remarks:—The whole Empire has been saved from what would have been no less than a very deep and public calamity, if the lunatic's shot had taken aim. The occasion has brought forth the latent feelings of loyalty and affection, cherished towards our Gracious Sovereign by all her subjects, here as elsewhere.

THE Lahore paper hears that there have lately been several atrocious murders committed in the Faridkot State. On the 15th February the body of a man was found, with his head severed from his body, near Bhakri, a village in Faridkot territory; and within a week of this case four men and a woman were found murdered in a dharmsala at Bhugta, also a village in Faridkot. The Raja is taking every possible measure to trace the murderers.

UNDER instructions from the mortgagee, Messrs. Mehrjee, Johnston and Co., auctioneers, put up to sale by public auction yesterday afternoon the lease of the establishment known as "Temple Bar," which expires on the 1st March, 1885, together with the good-will, fittings, fixtures and stock-in-trade. The premises comprise a large saloon with a gallery all round, and have too frontages, one in Rampart-row and the other in Meadow-street. In the saloon is a well-fitted-up bar with marble top, beer engines, mirrors, filters, ice-boxes, etc., required for the storage of liquors and glass. There are five English full-sized billiard-tables, and one French table newly covered and furnished with balls, cues, etc., the sides and ends of the saloon being garnished partly with large mirrors, and partly with tables, chairs, and benches, with small round marble and enamelled tables at short intervals. A large number of persons were present at the sale, which commenced at 3 o'clock with a reserved bid of Rs. 10,000. The biddings went up as follows:—Rs. 11,500 by Mr. M. Breslauer; Rs. 11,000 by Mr. C. Marcks; Rs. 11,500 by Mr. Breslauer; and Rs. 12,000 by Mr. Marcks. The property was knocked down for the last-mentioned amount to Mr. Marcks, the mortgagee.

OF the appointment of the Quetta Brigade Surgeoncy, the Pioneer writes:—"Our Bombay correspondent's announcement that Dr. Joynt had been ordered to Quetta instead of Dr. Cook will to many readers have only conveyed the knowledge that the latter must have been under orders for that place before. But locally the matter of the medical charge of Quetta had a very different significance. Dr. Cook is the Principal of the Grant Medical College and Chairman of the Town Council, a distinguished medical and sanitary authority, and naturally a man of much consideration in the city. When it was suddenly made known that his services had been placed at the disposal of the military authorities for transfer to Quetta there was much protest against the selection falling on one who could so ill be spared; and eventually the substitution spoken of above was made. This is, figuratively, to second struggle between the Bombay public and the Government over the body of Dr. Cook—a fact which, no doubt, lent additional interest to the issue."

THE reports of the Revenue and Agricultural Department on the state of the season and prospects of the crops throughout India for the week ending the 28th February, 1882, are summed up in the following "general remarks":—"No rain fell during the week in any part of India except in Assam, Burma, and Lower Bengal. The spring crops are ripening fast in every province, and in Southern India they have either been or are being harvested. In Madras prospects are reported to be good, though the out-turn of the harvest in parts is below the average, and the standing crops have suffered from a deficient rainfall. In Bombay the rabi harvest has been completed in some districts, and is still going on in others. The cotton crop is also being picked. Prospects are generally good, though Dharwar suffers from scarcity of water. The general rain throughout Bengal has much improved the rabi crops, though some damage has been done by hail. There is no change in the North-Western Provinces and Oudh. The yield on unirrigated lands in the central tract will be light owing to failure of the winter rains, and slight damage has been sustained in parts from hail and frost. In the Punjab, the Central Provinces, and British Burma agricultural prospects and the public health are good. In Assam the showery weather has much facilitated ploughing for the ahu crop, and the cold-weather crops are being reaped. There appears no cause for anxiety in the Mysore State, though water is scarce and crops which are dependent on irrigation are unsatisfactory. Dry crops are fair and prices easy. In Berar, Hyderabad, Central India, and Rajputana prospects are good and the weather seasonable Rain is much wanted in Nepal."

THE Lahore paper's latest letters from Kabul state that "there is a perfect reign of terror throughout the kingdom, and the Amir sits armed upon the throne. His chief advisers are Parwanah Khan, Mahomed Sawar Khan, a son of Nazir Haidar Khan, who accompanied the Amir in his exile, and Kazi Khan Mulla, who was in the service of Mahomed Afzul Khan. All whom the Amir suspects are either condemned to death at once, or thrown into prison and have their eyes put out. There is a report that Abdul Kuddus Khan, Governor of Herat, has been made away with; the sons of Abdul Kurrim Khan have been deprived of sight; and there is a general repentance in Kabul for the murder of Sir L. Cavagnari and the destruction of the mission, which has brought about the present deplorable state of affairs. Travellers from Kandahar tell their friends that the whole province is bitterly hostile to the Amir and ripe for revolt, and that Ayoub Khan has many correspondents among the principal Chiefs. The Khan of Lalpura, who recently received an invitation to proceed to Kabul, and declined on the plea that he regarded himself a dependent on the British Government, has received a letter from the Commissioner of Peshawur—to whom he had reported his refusal to go to Kabul and his reason for the refusal—stating that the British Government regard him as a subject of the Amir's, and have no concern in his affairs. It it, however, a matter of notoriety that there was an understanding between the Khan and the British Government that the latter should stand between the Amir and the Khan should he be threatened. The Khan would do well to remain at Lalpura, and if pressed by the Amir, to retreat into British territory. Moghul Khan, son of the late Khan of Kosht, disappeared promptly from Jellalabad when invited through the Governor to proceed to Kabul, as also did Syud Mahomed Khan Konair."

MR. JOSEPH COWEN, the member for Newcastle, was very loudly applauded in the House of Commons when he gave notice that he intended on the next day but one to call attention to the movements of Russia in Central Asia in the direction of our north-western frontier.

WE see that Colonel Gourlay has taken up the question of the obstruction in the Suez Canal caused by the absurd Egyptian quarantine regulations. The extra fees entailed on vessels by the insistance of the authorities that the pilots shall not go into quarantine and board the vessels, but must guide their charges through by means of steam launches, have now, we hear, risen to something like £500. At the time the mail left England they were £200, but the block has become more serious since then, vessels are delayed longer in the Canal, and the longer they are over making the passage the more they have to pay for hire of the launch.

IN a convocation held on February 16th at Oxford, the nomination of Mr. Edward Williams Byron Nicholson, M.A., Trinity College, who was recently elected by the Bodleian Curators to the office of librarian of that institution, in the place of the late Mr. Coxe, was confirmed.

SIR HENRY EVELYN WOOD, V.C., K.C.B., is gazetted Knight Grand Cross of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, and Sir John Henry De Villiers, Kt., Chief Justice of the Cape Colony, and another of the Commissioners for the Settlement of the Transvaal has been appointed a Knight Commander of the same Order.

MAJOR-GENERAL SIR EVELYN WOOD, V.C., resumed the command of the Chatham district on the 16th February, taking it over from Major-General the Hon. R. Monck.

THE Army and Navy has the following:—When the 92nd Highlanders landed at Portsmouth last week, they were met by a batch of recruits of the Cardwell-Childers type, and the impression made upon the brawny Highlanders was well expressed by one of them, who exclaimed, "Hech, Sandy, I'm blest if they haven't sent us a charity school!"

IN the two battalions of the Gordon Highlanders there are only two officers who are Gordons. Neither of the two Generals are Scotchmen. The Colonel who commands the district is not a Scotchman. The Colonel who commands the 1st Battalion is an Englishman. The Colonel who commands the 2nd Battalion is an Irishman. The 4th Battalion is not yet formed. The 3rd Battalion is, of course, Scotch, but there is only one Gordon (a Lieutenant) in it. The 75th and 92nd have a large infusion of Englishmen and Irishmen.

THE Waterloo Cup was won on February 16th by Captain Ellis's Snowflight, beating the Earl of Haddington's Hornpipe in the deciding course.

MISS FURTIN, Miss Hughes, and Miss O'Carroll three lady Land Leaguers, were released from [illegible] prison on February 16, after undergoing [illegible] imprisonment. They were arrested for [illegible] dissolve a meeting in Ross-common when [illegible] to do so by the constabulary, and when [illegible] fore a magistrate they declined to give [illegible] their future good behaviour, and were [illegible] ed in default. On their release they were [illegible] med by the members of the Mullingar Ladies' [illegible] League, and were accompanied by bands of [illegible] amid much enthusiasm.

THE first step has been taken towards the reform of regimental messes, a home service paper states, in the promulgation of the order requiring the commanding officer of every regiment to furnish a certificate that the officers can get their three meals a day for the modest total of four shillings. "This will clearly lead to the general establishment of caterer's messes throughout the Army, a change which we think will, on the whole, be for the good of the service as it is at present constituted."

THE United Service Gazette is glad to see that Major-General Sir J. C. McLeod has been selected for the Ceylon command, as, although the number of troops in the island is now very small, it is well to have a good soldier there, and under existing circumstances Colombo must be quite as pleasant a place of residence as Belfast.

SIR RICHARD TEMPLE'S long-promised work on "Men and Events of my Time in India," the Athenæum of Feb. 18 says, will be published next week by Mr. Murray. Sir Richard's previous volume, "India in 1880," related to external things; this book, on the contrary, is mainly devoted to the description of particular men in their public capacities, or to summaries of their official conduct, and of their idiosyncrasies as displayed in the manner in which they served their country. The opening chapter is devoted to a contrast between the circumstances of India in 1847 and 1881, and amongst many others the careers of the Marquis of Dalhousie, Earl Canning, Sir John Lawrence, Earl Mayo, and Sir Bartle Frere are related. Chapters are also devoted to the Mutiny of 1857-59, to James Wilson, the economist, to Mr. Samuel Laing, &c.

FROM Mullingar the following little anecdote has been sent to the St. James's Gazette:—"We dined with the —— last night, and met an unfortunate boycotted landlord, who, with his wife, drove in from his place armed to the teeth, with two armed policemen on the car. The landlord, his wife, and coachman carried between them four revolvers and a Winchester repeating rifle, thirteen fire-arms of all sorts on the car. We sat down to dinner with a loaded revolver on the mantlepiece, and a loaded Winchester repeater of thirteen shots in the corner."

THE United States Senate has passed the Anti-Polygamy Bill without a dissentient vote. The New York Tribune states that the Bill provides for keeping off juries all who practise or believe in polygamy, for debarring polygamists from the privileges of voting or holding office; and for making the fact of bigamous relations sufficient evidence alone of a violation of the statute against polygamy. In other words (the Tribune adds), it takes away the rights of citizenship from the Mormons, and provides a sure and expeditious method of sending them to gaol. No one can reasonably complain that this remedy for the Utah evil is not sufficiently drastic.

M. GAMBETTA returned to Paris on the 16th February, and resumes the editorship of the République Française. According to the Times' correspondent, he has hastened back on account of being dissatisfied with the attitude assumed by his friends towards the Cabinet. The Paris denies that, according to a letter falsely attributed to him, M. Gambetta proposes to become the head of the Union Republicaine and the Left wing of the Ministry.

REGARDING the new Parliamentary Procedure rules, the Pall Mall Gazette of the 17th February, the day the mail left, writes:—"The discussion on the chances of a Ministerial majority in favour of the first rule has now given place to a discussion as to the probable dimensions of the majority by which it is certain to be carried. In the House the current estimate varies from 30 to 50, according to the personal predilections of the calculator. There are thirty-eight more Liberals in the House than the Conservatives and Home Rulers combined. Making no allowance for vacant seats, there are 337 Liberals against 242 Conservatives and 60 Home Rulers, three of whom are in Kilmainham."

THE following startling statement as to the wholesale frauds practised upon the cotton-spinners of Lancashire by the packers of American cotton is taken from the report of Colonel Shaw, Consul of the United States at Manchester:—"The instances where the weight of the cotton has been increased by putting sand and water into the bales are most shameful and humiliating. Hundreds of tons of sand are bought and paid for at the price of cotton every year at Oldham. The sand is apparently thrown in by shovelfuls. Sometimes nearly a hundred pounds are found in one bale." Dr. Lyon Playfair reported on his return from his last visit to the States that the sterling honesty and unflinching rectitude of the early Puritans had given a character of honesty to all the manufacturers of America. It is unfortunate this honesty has not extended to the cotton-packers.

NOBODY with the smallest practical knowledge of the character and constitution of the House of Commons, says the St. James's Gazette, can doubt that the real effect of the gagging rule would be to transfer obstruction and disorder from the Minority to the Majority—from those who by the nature of the case require protection to those who do not require it at all. The rule demands in the first place that it shall appear to the Speaker, or to the Chairman of Committees, to be "the evident sense of the House, or of the Committee, that the question be now put." What is the process by which the "evident sense of the House or the Committee" is intimated to the Speaker or Chairman? The whole world knows how it is done. This "sense of the House" is signified by inarticulate noises. Only one articulate word is ordinarily employed, the word "divide;" but there is nothing inarticulate which is not permitted—shouts, screams, the crowing of the cock, and the braying of the ass. It is more than forty years since Mr. Warren's novel "Ten Thousand a Year" became famous; but there are passages in it as true and amusing as they were then, and among them is the description of the way in which the hero became a personage in the House of Commons by his unrivalled "Cock-a-doodle-doo." Now, under this new rule, what was a spontaneous expression of weariness will become an organised method of putting down inconvenient opposition. A knot of Ministerialists under the gallery will make it their business to show Mr. Speaker, or Mr. Chairman, that the House, or Committee, desires an immediate division. Let it be remembered that the House, or Committee, within the meaning of the rule, must mean the members present at some particular moment. How is the Speaker, or Chairman, to resist a storm of crowing or braying, or a tempestuous shout of "Divide?" It gives him the "evident sense" of the assembly, and he must obey it: indeed, he has no help for himself. The fact is that a long prospect of intrigues, ending in riot, is opened by this rule to the House of Commons. The Majority is invited to employ the physical superiority which is inherent in its numerical superiority. Obstruction is to become the privilege of the party in power.

IF, as is generally understood, Mr. Cowen is not only the proprietor, but also the London correspondent, of the Newcastle Chronicle, the following observations are the more deserving of attention:—

It is to be regretted that Liberal members have not more backbone and cannot muster courage sufficient to stand by their convictions and take the consequences. One well-known member said to me, "I hate the closure and all its surroundings as strongly as you do. I have been many years in Parliament, have been in many a minority, and I know from experience the domineering disposition of all majorities, whether Liberal or Conservative; but I do not wish to lose my seat. The local caucuses, with little knowledge of the question and no experience of the House, have passed resolutions in favour of the new plan, and I am not strong enough to fight them. Last year I sank my convictions to serve my party and voted for coercion. I consequently alienated the Irish element in my borough. If I were to lose the organised Liberals, I might as well resign." This is the sort of pressure that is being brought to bear on the more independent section of the Liberal party; and it will succeed. But its success will be purchased at a heavy cost. The member I refer to also observes:—"I am not under such despotism, and long for an opportunity to break from it. There is despotism both outside and inside Parliament. I may obey; but the party cannot expect me to love them. I may vote for them, or I may abstain from voting; but my services being forced, my own sense of justice being not only ignored but outraged, I only give an outward and formal, but not a willing, obedience to their behest." If the Liberals who are using this pressure would consider, they would see that this course of policy is driving the party to destruction.

HAS London deteriorated or improved during the last thirty years? Babylon has grown bigger; has it also grown better? An American, who visited the British metropolis thirty years since, and has now taken up his residence there, answers these questions in a New York paper with a decided affirmative. London, he maintains, is much more habitable and convenient than it was. The Underground Railway, new bridges across the river, tramcars, and omnibuses practically reduce the ever-extending area of the city within manageable limits. The moral improvement of London seems to him to have been even more remarkable. Professional beggars, with whom the streets swarmed in 1850, have almost disappeared, and what he calls "the revolting visibilities" of the "silent vice of capitals" are no longer so openly shameless as of old. Prize-fighting has gone out of fashion, and, most wonderful of all, "all the politeness of Paris," in so far as relates to the giving of information to the stranger in the street, "has been reproduced in London." In short, the American finds that "the lowest strata of society are being gradually elevated in the direction of a healthy self-respect, good manners, and better morals."

PROPOSED THROUGH BOOKING BETWEEN UP-COUNTRY STATIONS AND ENGLAND.

AT the meeting of the Bombay Port Trust yesterday, the Secretary read a Government resolution calling upon the Trustees to nominate two of their number to sit on a committee which is being appointed to consider the question of through booking between up-country stations and England raised by the Sind, Punjab, and Delhi Railway. With regard to this subject a memorandum by the Hon. Mr. Graham was read. Mr. Graham stated that he was at a loss to know why a question of this kind should be referred to the Trustees, as it could be more appropriately dealt with by the Chamber of Commerce. The great difficulty in carrying out any scheme such as that referred to by Government would be the ocean-carrying part of it. It would hardly be possible to arrange rates of freight for shipment to the many different ports to which wheat is consigned, and the risk of detention and damage in transit would involve serious responsibilities; so that it seemed to him that Government and the railways should confine themselves to the duties of forwarding wheat to the port of shipment on the most moderate terms of carriage possible. The Chairman remarked that the Chamber of Commerce was very fully represented on that Board. The Hon. Mr. Graham and Mr. Kittredge were elected to the Committee. Mr. Kittredge, however, expressed an opinion that two of the new members should be appointed. He also expressed an opinion that the plan referred to in the Government resolution would be impracticable.

THE GYMKHANA SPORTS,

THE REGATTA.

YESTERDAY was the first day of the Regatta, and the water sports were as enjoyable as those of the land. The boat races were witnessed by large crowds gathered on the Apollo-bunder, and a number of ladies and gentlemen afloat in the beautiful harbour. The first race was:—

JUNIOR PAIRS, first heat. Distance ½ mile.
W. A. Bankier. W. M. Macdonald.
H. Symons. W. Gardner.

Owing to the number of craft that crossed the course, it was rather late before the start was made. However, the boats got away well together at last. They kept pretty close until near the winning post, but Macdonald and Gardner came in three lengths ahead of their opponents, who made a gallant fight of it.

CHALLENGE FOURS. Distance 1 mile.

POONA.	st. lbs	BOMBAY.	st. lbs
L. A. Gordon	11	L. L. Stewart	11 10
J. H. Mackay	11 5	L. P. Russell	12 0
E. H. Pickwood	11 0	A. Arthur	12 4
Stroke, W. H. LeQuesne	11 0	C. Scott	11 2
Cox—R. G. Oxenham	9 6	E. L. Barton	9 10

There was a good start, and Bombay led for some distance. Then Poona crept up, and the two crews were level for a time; but Bombay again forged ahead a little, whereupon Poona put on a spurt, and there was a splendid race up to the finish. The Bombay stroke appeared to be long and even, but it was not so fast as that of Poona. The result of this race was that Poona won by about a quarter of a length. The Poona crew received a great deal of applause, and were greeted with such shouts as "Well rowed Poona."

LADIES' FOURS, first heat. Distance, ½ mile.

G. Evens.	W. Gardner.
W. Taches.	A. F. Beaufort.
F. Jefferson.	H. Symons.
E. L. Barton.	G. Browne.

The start was a good one, and for the greater part of the distance it was an equal race; but Gardner, Beaufort, Symons, and Browne came in winners with not much to spare, however. Miss Jeffreson was cox of one boat, and Miss Whitcombe of the other.

DOUBLE SCULLS, first heat. Distance ½ mile.

E. H. Aitken.	W. M. Macdonald.	W. A. Bankier.
A. Arthur.	A. V. Scott.	L. P. Russell.

This was a close race; Aitken and Arthur being the winners.

The second and final heats of the junior pairs, the double sculls, and the ladies' fours remained to be rowed, but darkness coming on, these events had to be postponed. Mr. Tennent acted as starter, and Mr. McL. Campbell as judge.

THE GYMKHANA DINNER.

A DINNER was held last evening in the Pavilion. About 80 were present. After dinner the toasts of the "Queen," the "Visitor," the "Poona tour," and the "Poona Polo Team" were given. The dinner, which was an excellent one, was provided by Messrs. Green and Read, of the Apollo-bunder.

PRINCE'S DOCK.—The s. s. Spearman and Argosy entered the dock on Monday; the s. s. Canara and Indus entered yesterday.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—Mr. A. H. Baynes, Secretary, Baptist Missionary Society, London, will (D. V.) give an address at the Chapel (Bellasis-road, Byculla) this (Wednesday) evening at 8 o'clock (Bombay time).

HOUSEBREAKING AND THEFT.—Abdool Ally Noorbhoy reported to the police on Monday last that his shop at Kharra Talao was broken into on the night previous, and thirteen glazier's diamonds and the embroidered end of a turban were stolen.

OLD OFFENDERS.—Babajee Hunmunta was yesterday convicted by Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee of stealing gold and silver ornaments, and cash, of the value of Rs. 177, the property of Rajama, woman. He was sentenced to twelve months' rigorous imprisonment.—Nassur Khanook, a Siddee, was convicted by Mr. W. Webb of stealing currency notes and cash of the value of Rs. 139 from Ally Mooga Haid. He was sentenced to two years' rigorous imprisonment.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A coroner's inquest was held yesterday at Mirza Oil-maker's-street, on the body of Dyal Purbhu, aged thirty-five years. Deceased was a calasee, and lived in Bappoo Kote-street. He came to Bombay about four months ago, and was employed in loading and unloading native vessels. Latterly he complained of severe pains in his chest. While passing along Mirza Oil-maker's-street, at about 7 o'clock on the evening previous, he suddenly dropped down, and died in a few minutes. The verdict was that the death of the deceased was caused by heart-disease.

HERR SIMONSEN'S CONCERT.—We call the attention of the public to the complimentary benefit tendered by some of the leading amateurs of Bombay to Simonsen's operatic company. This company is composed of musicians of the very highest class, and we regret that they have not as yet met in Bombay with the appreciation they deserve. The concert to be held to-morrow (Thursday) is sure to be a rich musical treat, and we may safely recommend the public of Bombay to attend it. Miss Dwight Miss Schmuck, Mr. Ker, Mr. Wyer, Signor Inzoli, and Herr Briner will take part in the concert.

THE GAIETY THEATRE.—Miss Thoburn (Mrs. Merer) and Mr. Merer take their benefit to-morrow evening, when we hope there will be a bumper house. Miss Thoburn, by her charming dancing and clever and spirited acting, has deservedly gained much popularity in Bombay; whilst Mr. Merer is generally acknowledged to be one of the best actors that we have had in Bombay for a very long time. He is careful and refined and never spoils a part by overdoing it. The support of the public may, perhaps, be more readily given when it is remembered that Mr. and Mrs. Merer sustained a very heavy pecuniary loss by the wreck of the Clan Macduff, which went down with all their valuable effects, which were uninsured.

FATAL RAILWAY ACCIDENT.—A coroner's inquest was held on Monday last at Dadur, on the body of Govind Aloo, aged fifty years, a dealer in vegetables. Deceased, it appears, on the day previous, at about 6-30 p. m., after the Jubbulpore mail-train had passed, was found lying on the line near a level-crossing gate with his left leg broken and his head crushed, he evicently having been knocked down and run over by the train. It transpired that he could not see well, and that his hearing was also defective. He was in the habit of going through the crossing on his way to Mahim. The jury found that death was caused from injuries received by the deceased being accidentally knocked down and run over by a railway train, but were of opinion that the level-crossing gate should be guarded by a man on each side of the line.

SACRILEGE AT KURRACHEE.—Last week it was discovered that about 20 rupees, a portion of the offertory collections, had been abstracted from the safe in the vestry-room of Trinity Church. The chowkidar of the church proved to be the thief. He was sentenced by the City Magistrate on Thursday last to 12 months' rigorous imprisonment.—Sind Civil and Military Gazette.

FIRES AT SHOLAPORE.—We learn that a fire broke out in Mungalwar Peit, Sholapore, on Friday last, when property to the value of over Rs. 2,000 was destroyed. On the following night (Saturday) some evil-disposed person threw an inflamed cow-dung cake covered with a piece of cloth on the roof of a mundup, in which a great number of people were assembled witnessing a dramatic performance. Fortunately somebody discovered it before it had time to ignite the tar-putre (tar-coated matting) with which the roof of the mundup was covered. Had it burst into a blaze, we regret to say, a terrible conflagration would have occurred.—Poona Observer.

DINNER OF THE BOMBAY [illegible] AND PHYSICAL SOC[illegible]

THE members of the Bombay Medica[illegible] cal Society, to the number of 30, dined together at the Apollo-bunder refreshment rooms on Saturday night last. The chair was occupied by the President of the Society, who gave the usual loyal toasts, which were heartily responded to—more particularly that of the Queen-Empress, in view of the late dastardly and unmanly attempt on her life. Toast and song followed in quick succession; and a most enjoyable evening was brought to a close by the toast of "Our next merry meeting," in giving which Dr. Cody hoped that the present was only the first of many social gatherings which would help to link the members of the Society more closely together in the bonds of professional brotherhood. The arrangements for the dinner were conducted by Dr. Maconachie, and reflected the highest credit on him.

M.'s 21st Regt. N. I. There were present on the occasion in all 67 rank and file, consisting of one adjutant and captain, two captains, one lieutenant, two sergeant instructors, one staff sergeant, five sergeants, and 55 privates. Several of the men being unavoidably detained on duty, could not attend. The total strength of the Corps is 171. The men, having been put through several manœuvres, were dismissed after Colonel Beville had expressed his satisfaction with the appearance of the Corps. On the same evening the annual ball of the Corps was given at the Mechanics' Library Room, Parel which was converted for the occasion into one large dancing hall, and was tastef

AMERICAN ORGUINETTE, IMPROVED PATTERN.

THE AMERICAN ORGUINETTE is a Reed Musical Instrument, constructed somewhat on the principle of the [illegible] and adapted to be played by means of perforated paper, each sheet representing two or more tunes. There is no limit to either kind or quantity of music. It will play HYMN TUNE, POPULAR AIR, SET OF QUADRILLE, POLKAS, WALTZES, REELS, and HORNPIPES with a clearness, accuracy and degreed execution which but few performers can equal. A MERE CHILD CAN PLAY IT. The music-box and all kindred instruments are the only expensive luxuries enjoyed by a few, but they are limited to a few set tunes, and so soon become tiresome, and as means of enjoyment to their owners, entirely worthless. The AMERICAN ORGUINETTE, with its automatic music sheets, represents both organ and organist, music, musician, and music-teacher, and so is admirably adapted for singing-parties, dancing-parties, winter evening entertainments, and educational purposes, and is, therefore, not only the latest musical wonder, but the price considered.

The most Marvellous Mechanical Musical Instrument of the Age.

It is the most simple, perfect, instructive, enjoyable, and amusing automatic Musical Instrument in the World.

PERFORMING EVERY DESCRIPTION OF MUSIC.
PRICE, WITH ATTACHMENT AND MUSIC, Rs. 60. Packing, Rs. 2 extra.
The above style is provided with an Expression Box, by means of which the quality and power of the tone are greatly varied.

EXTRA TUNES FROM RS. 1-8 EACH.

Excellent in tone. Unique in design. Perfectly simple in principle. Strong in construction. Durable in every part.

A larger instrument than the above at Rs. 250.
